Only registered food merchants may sell food & beverages. All pages of this contract must be filled out. Booth's are to reflect a Medieval Renaissance theme. Preference will be given to handcrafted items, prepared by the merchant. Originality in booth display and garb will be appreciated.

Please provide representative images of the items you intend to sell and a picture of the front of your booth. Representative images are acceptable.

Will you need lodging outside of your booth? Yes No (Two workers may stay in your booth overnight.)
There is a limited amount of lodging available on a first come, first served basis.

Idyllwild Festivals Inc (IFI) will make every effort to avoid duplication of products, but no merchant will be granted exclusive rights to any one product.

This event will be held at Hurkey Creek Park in the San Jacinto mountain range at over 5,000 feet elevation in an alpine forest. Stay hydrated and use sun screen. Surrounded by state and national parks, this is a wilderness area with all the beauty and danger that comes with natural, mountain living.

All Merchants are responsible for providing IFI with their own liability insurance, and must comply with all Federal, State and local jurisdictional requirements. The Idyllwild Fire Protection District, Riverside County Department of Environmental Health & IFI will be inspecting the sites prior to opening. Vendor agrees to comply with all (IFI) terms, conditions, rules and regulations as shown on the attached pages.

Terms and Conditions - Booth Display Requirements

1. Booths shall attempt to be constructed as they may have been around the 16th/17th century. Hand-built booths shall be placed with other hand-built booths to create an authentic marketplace. You may choose to setup a mundane tent by your booth, but they must be struck by the opening of the Faire. There will be a tent city for modern tents which may remain setup.
2. Products for sale should be items that may have been bought or sold during the 16th/17th century Renaissance era. Idyllwild is an area that may have existed during this time frame. Being on a trade route and in the West allows for unique products and wares. Some latitude may be allowed, but no flea market, day-glo, or mass produced items are to be allowed. The merchants shall promote a general ambiance of a pre-1700's old-world marketplace for our guests to immerse themselves in.
3. Items not submitted for prior approval by IFI may not be displayed or sold.
4. Merchants are responsible for their own set-up and tear-down during the designated time frames. No set-up or tear-down outside of the designated time frames. No exceptions.
5. Merchants are responsible for the maintenance of their booth space. Each booth shall have and maintain a trash bin with liners. Trash shall be deposited in the large trash bins provided by IFI as the need arises. Booths must be maintained in an orderly and pleasing way.
6. Merchants must restrict their booths and all accessories to their designated areas. This includes poles, stakes, guy wires or ropes, display areas, awnings and storage areas.
7. Merchants are to provide all their own tables, chairs, racks, etc. needed for the operation of the booth. Water and electricity is available in limited areas. Please indicate if you will need electricity to your site.
 Yes No Ice will be available on a limited basis.
8. Most booths will be in direct sun, so shade covers are recommended. Shade covers shall be fire-resistant per the Fire Department requirements.
9. Booths will be on uneven, dirt surfaces. No digging or leveling of the ground will be allowed.
10. No electronics such as, televisions, radios, or amplified music are to be used. There will be WiFi available for credit card processing but may be impacted by how many use it.
11. All booths must have an approved and currently tagged fire extinguisher approved by the local Fire Department.
12. All booth participants should be in period costume and in character while on the Faire site.
13. Booths must be staffed and open for business at all times the Faire is in operation.
14. No food or beverages may be sold or given away without prior IFI approval and the proper health department permits secured.
15. Booth operators are responsible for all required taxes, fees and permits. This includes, but is not limited to; Federal, state, fire, county or local jurisdictional codes and ordinances.
16. Pets may be allowed around the booth but not in the booth. They must be on a leash or secured and have been approved by IFI prior to coming on site. Pets must have all current, required vaccinations. Participants are responsible for cleaning up after their pets and disposing of their litter in an approved trash bin. Unruly or pets deemed dangerous or unsafe shall be removed from the Faire site immediately.
17. Idyllwild Festivals Inc strives to provide a safe and fun experience for all of our participants and guests. Please join us in creating the best Renaissance Faire ever!

General Rules and Regulations

1. All participants shall maintain a general sense of well-being and a fun and exciting attitude in order to promote a great experience for our patrons.
2. Participant badges/bands will be issued and must be worn at all times in a manner that security can confirm the participants are authorized to be on the Faire site. Anyone without a participants badge will be escorted to the front gate where they may secure a badge, if allowed.
3. Absolutely No Smoking/Vaping except in clearly marked and designated smoking areas.
4. All weapons must be inspected by our security team prior to entering the Faire site. Weapons shall be “peace-tied”, sheathed and secured at all times. Anyone brandishing or threatening with a weapon will be immediately expelled from the Faire site without any reimbursement. Our security team will determine what constitutes a weapon and whether it is secured adequately. Their decision is final.
5. Fires are to be strictly controlled and approved by the local Fire Department prior to any fire being used. Don't plan on having a fire until you have submitted a request and it has been approved by the local Fire Department.
6. Under no circumstances are illegal controlled substances to be allowed on the Faire site. Anyone with these items in their possession, while on the Faire site, will be subject to immediate expulsion and/or arrest.
7. Minors under the age of twenty-one (21) are prohibited from consuming, handling or purchasing alcoholic beverages.
8. Drunkenness, unruly or out of control behavior will result in immediate expulsion from the Faire site.
9. Quiet times - Out of respect for your fellow participants, quiet times will be from 10:00 PM until 8:00 AM. No loud parties or debates shall be tolerated.
10. A limited number of bunks are available at $20/person/bunk for one night. Pre-booking is mandatory by Friday, September 1, 2023. Camping sites will be available at $30/site for two nights stay.
11. Overnight security will be provided, but IFI, the security team, officers and its agents are not responsible for any lost or stolen items.
12. Participants consent to the use of their names, photographs, images, recorded voice or music by IFI, its employees or agents for the purpose of commercial and promotional use only.
13. All facilities, materials, supplies, and equipment that belongs to IFI or the venue, used by the participants shall be maintained and cared for so as to be returned in a clean, usable condition upon the conclusion of the event. Failure to do so may result in a maintenance fee of $75 per hour and the cost of repairing or replacing the items. The participants will be required to reimburse IFI and the venue for any and all repairs or damages to any venue facility, which occurred during the event, and/or which were caused by the direct action or inaction of the participants. Participants are to notify IFI immediately of any damaged or unsafe items prior to its use.
14. All booths are to provide a legible sign with the Name of the merchant, address and phone number, clearly displayed and visible to the public.
15. In order to provide a pleasant and trouble-free event, any questions, concerns or comments must be submitted in writing via email to: Merchants@IdyllwildFestivals.com prior to submitting this form, in order for us to address these issues. Last minute issues or issues not handled prior to the event will necessarily be handled as IFI see fit. All decisions and directions given by IFI are final.
